SAM GROSS TEXT RESPONSE TO DAN SCULLY sent 2/15/22 @ 2:25 pm (2 texts sent back to back):

The funds was sent to Manfred. Not me.

Your lawyer can file whatever he likes.

But I am not holding the funds. Manfred is.

So this is a funny statement.

You wired money to manfred per the contract. If you wish to cancel the contract ? You need to have your lawyer email Manfred stating he represents you. And he wants the contract void and funds back.

And then Manfred can refund him.

Making such statements?

This is extortion for something that I didn't even received.

If you want to cancel the transaction ? And you want a refund ? All you have to do is have your attorney contact manfred with a formal request so Manfred can issue him a refund.

Manfred is not calling your lawyer. Neither am I.

If you wish to cancel.

Like I stated before.

Have your attorney contact manfred via text or email.

And he will gladly attend to it.
